

Truth and Reconciliation Commission “Calls to Action”

Opportunities to Respond

Park Board Committee Meeting

January 11, 2016

Background

- June 23, 2015:
City motion to review “Calls to Action.”
  - City staff reporting back on January 18, 2016.

- June 29, 2015:
Urban Aboriginal Advisory requests Park Board review of “Calls to Action.”

- July 20, 2015:
Park Board directs staff to report back on TRC “Calls to Action” within the Park Board’s jurisdiction.

Calls to Action

- TRC issued 94 calls to action.
  - 12 call upon either ‘all levels of government’ or ‘municipal governments’.
  - 8 of these are within jurisdiction or influence of the Park Board.
  - 20 additional actions are related to areas in which Park Board has influence or opportunity.

- TRC’s “Calls to Action” identifies two major areas of action Legacy and Reconciliation. These two areas include 22 themes.
- Current recommendations address both areas and 14 of the themes, most notably:
  - Language and Culture
  - Commemoration
  - Professional Development and Training for Public Servants
  - Education for Reconciliation
  - Youth Programs
  - Sports and Reconciliation.

Work-to-Date

Professional Development and Training for Public Servants:

- Squamish Nation presentation at VanDusen on history of local indigenous communities
- Planning staff attend Brad Marsden workshop on residential schools
- Briefing for Operations and Planning managers on archeological considerations
- TRACKS Symposium attended by staff from Planning and Recreation

Language, Culture and Commemoration

- Stanley Park Plan: Park Board Commissioners initiate new relationship with Musqueam, Squamish, and Tsleil-Waututh
- “Shore-to-Shore” sculpture information panel: new understanding of language sovereignty
- TRACKS Symposium: bringing together indigenous, settler, & immigrant artists, thinkers, & educators who create community-engaged art
- “Songs for Reconciliation”: Community art project that shared cultural knowledge and truths about residential schools

Education for Reconciliation

- Reconciliation in Action (RIA): “Drive the Change” - hosted at Britannia demonstrated how reconciliation can become a reality at the neighbourhood-level
- Hastings Community Centre has planned a similar RIA event. Will include the launch of a Reconciliation art project supported by Park Board’s Neighbourhood Matching Fund

Youth Programs

- RISE (Responsible Indigenous Strategy for Empowerment),
  - delivered in Community Centres as a partnership between ALIVE & Community Centre Associations
- MoreSports
  - supporting access to sports for Aboriginal youth;
- Park Board's Orange Shirt Day
  - raised awareness that "every child matters."

EVERY CHILD MATTERS
COMING TOGETHER IN THE SPIRIT OF RECONCILIATION

To date, the Vancouver Park Board has:

- Initiated reconciliation actions;
- Responded to Indigenous initiatives;
- Taken advantage of opportunities.

Recommendations

THAT, in response to the Calls to Action provided by the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada (TRC), the Vancouver Park Board direct staff to:

Truth and Reconciliation
Commission of Canada

- A. Adopt the "United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples" as a reference framework for Park Board's Reconciliation initiatives;

United Nations
DECLARATION
on the RIGHTS of INDIGENOUS PEOPLES

Recommendation

- B. Work with First Nations people's and other civic bodies to identify, create, and deliver appropriate and actionable staff training on indigenous issues and reconciliation;

- C. Take a 360 degree approach to programming, including in the areas of culture, health, public dialogue, physical activity, and sport in order to increase public knowledge and awareness of reconciliation and to provide support to indigenous peoples including children, youth, Elders and families;

Recommendation

- D. Continue Park Board's precedent-setting intergovernmental approach to the future stewardship of Stanley Park and other relevant lands;

Recommendation

E. Review the donation of monuments, memorials, and public art processes and policies to ensure integration of Indigenous history, heritage values, and memory practices;

Recommendation

F. Review archeological protocols to ensure that "Aboriginal protocols shall be respected before any potentially invasive technical inspection and investigation of a cemetery site" or soil disturbance of a midden site takes place on park lands;

- G. Acknowledge that Aboriginal rights include Aboriginal language rights; that preservation, revitalization and strengthening of Aboriginal languages and cultures are best managed by Aboriginal people and communities;

- H. Review partner and business contracts, relationships and procurement policies for alignment with TRC Calls to Action;

Recommendation

- I. Establish and fund as a priority a program for Indigenous and non-Indigenous artists to undertake collaborative community-engaged projects and produce works that contribute to the reconciliation process;

Recommendation

- J. Review event permitting and sports hosting opportunities to ensure that Indigenous peoples' territorial protocols are respected and that, if appropriate to the scale of the event, that local Indigenous communities are engaged;

Recommendation

- K. Maintain current policy of no charge for changing a name on the OneCard, especially in relation to Indigenous people reclaiming names changed by the residential school system.

Summary

- The 94 “Calls to Action” create a framework for Reconciliation
- The Vancouver Board of Parks and Recreation has made a commitment to reconciliation
- Park Board is already supporting substantial work that responds to the themes and actions identified by the TRC
- The recommendations presented in this report reflect a broad inclusive approach and mark the next phase of the Park Board’s Reconciliation journey

THAT, in response to the Calls to Action provided by the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada (TRC), the Vancouver Park Board direct staff to:

- A. Adopt the "United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples" as a reference framework for Park Board's Reconciliation initiatives;
- B. Work with First Nations people's and other civic bodies to identify, create, and deliver appropriate and actionable staff training on indigenous issues and reconciliation;
- C. Take a 360 degree approach to programming, including in the areas of culture, health, public dialogue, physical activity, and sport in order to increase public knowledge and awareness of reconciliation and to provide support to indigenous peoples including children, youth, Elders and families;

Recommendations

- D. Continue Park Board's precedent-setting intergovernmental approach to the future stewardship of Stanley Park and other relevant lands;
- E. Review the donation of monuments, memorials, and public art processes and policies to ensure integration of Indigenous history, heritage values, and memory practices;
- F. Review archeological protocols to ensure that "Aboriginal protocols shall be respected before any potentially invasive technical inspection and investigation of a cemetery site" or soil disturbance of a midden site takes place on park lands;
- G. Acknowledge that Aboriginal rights include Aboriginal language rights; that preservation, revitalization and strengthening of Aboriginal languages and cultures are best managed by Aboriginal people and communities;

- H. Review partner and business contracts, relationships and procurement policies for alignment with TRC Calls to Action;
- I. Establish and fund as a priority a program for Indigenous and non-Indigenous artists to undertake collaborative community-engaged projects and produce works that contribute to the reconciliation process;
- J. Review event permitting and sports hosting opportunities to ensure that Indigenous peoples' territorial protocols are respected and that, if appropriate to the scale of the event, that local Indigenous communities are engaged;
- K. Maintain current policy of no charge for changing a name on the OneCard, especially in relation to Indigenous people reclaiming names changed by the residential school system.

Questions?

