

Park Naming for Main & 18th and Yukon & 17th Park Sites

Park Board Committee Meeting
July 25, 2016

Purpose: Request that the Board initiate the Park Naming process for the parks located at

- Main & 18th, and
- Yukon & 17th

Agenda:

- Background
- Process
- Recommendation

Main & 18th Park Site

Main & 18th Park
Currently known as 'Poodle Park'

Background

Opened in 2013, commonly referred to as 'Poodle Park'. Park acts as the gateway to the mid-Main district.

Design elements include:

- Stormwater infiltration features
- Mature trees, new trees, and shrubs
- Grass berms
- Tables and chairs
- Public art (Poodle) designed by Gisele Amantea

Yukon & 17th Park Site

Yukon Street and 17th Avenue –
Currently unnamed

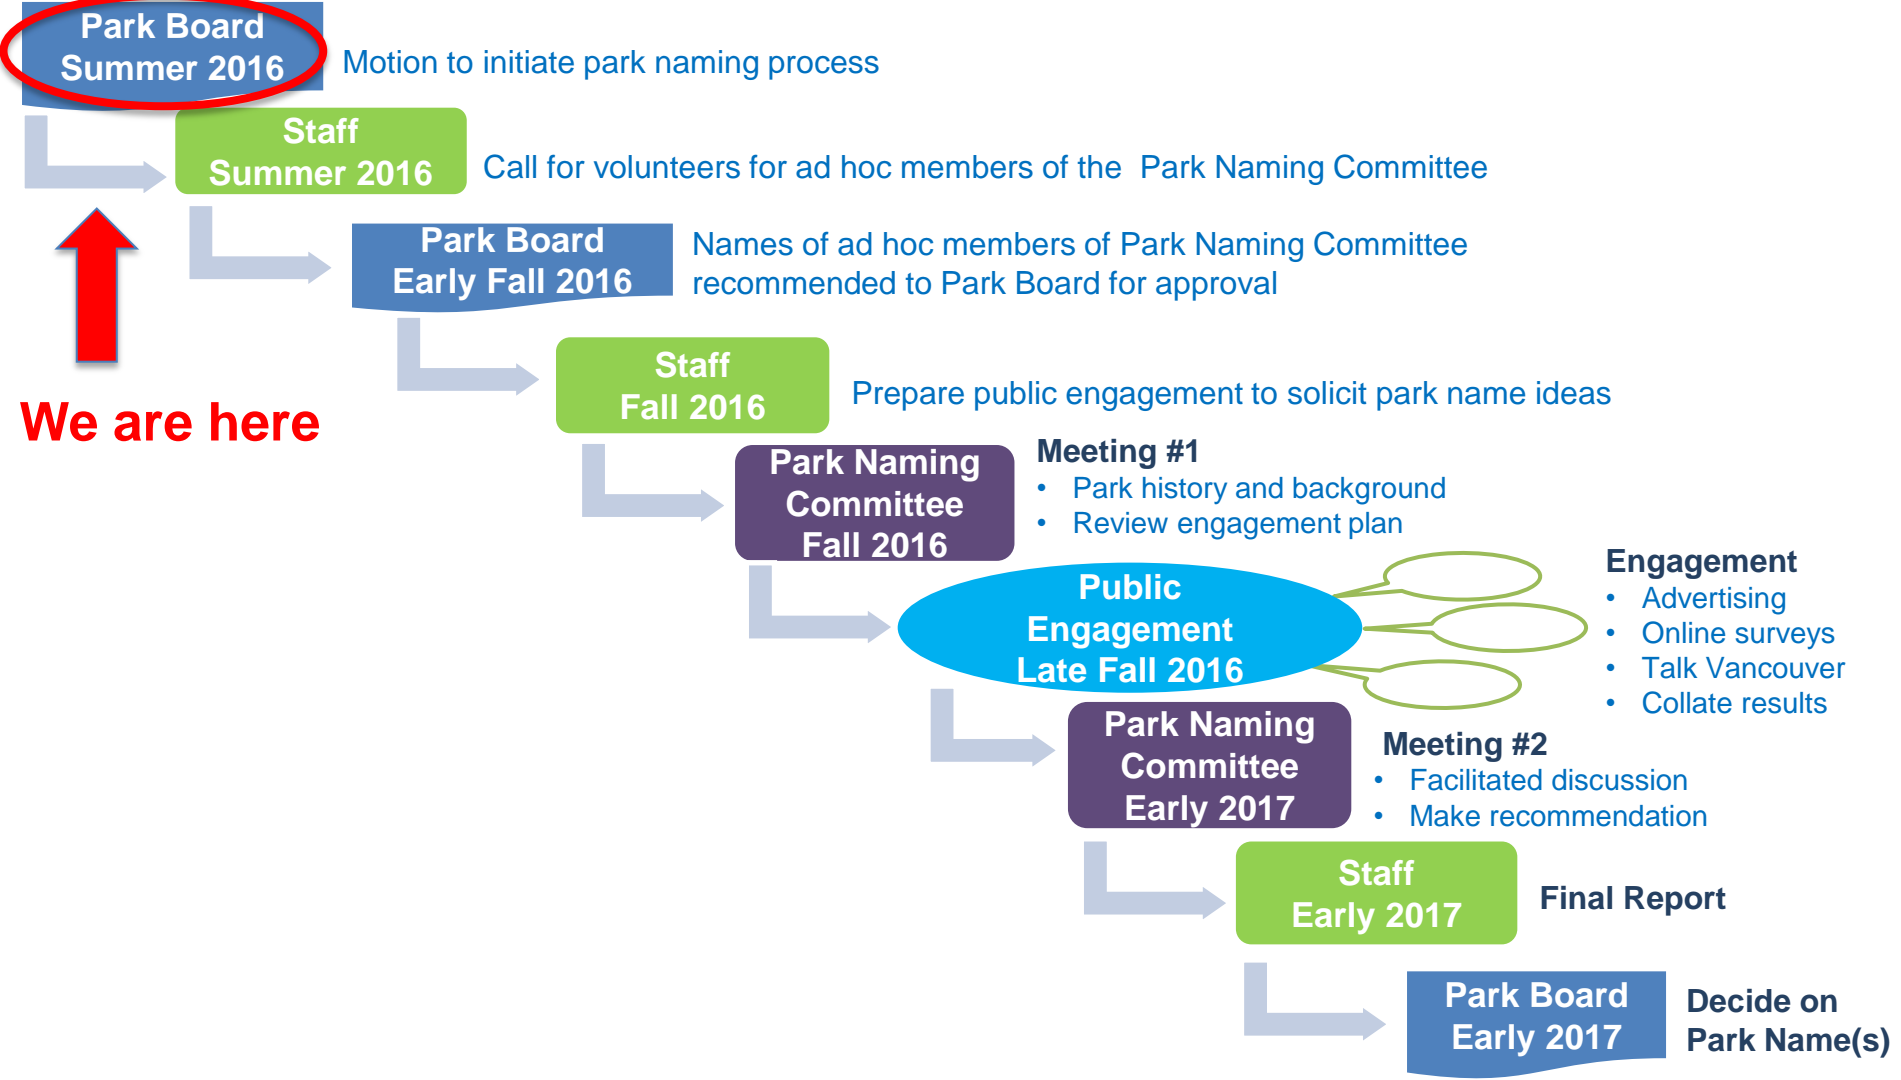

Background

Opening in fall 2016, will serve the surrounding neighbourhood and the Yukon Street cyclists.

Design elements include:

- Timber framed adventure playground
- Separated bike lane, bike repair station, bike racks and drinking fountain
- A bioswale to manage stormwater
- New trees, maintained mature trees and new native plant beds
- Grass berms and a passive lawn area
- Raised concrete curved benches and new seating

- A. THAT the Vancouver Park Board initiate the naming process for the park located at Main Street and 18th Avenue.
- B. THAT the Vancouver Park Board initiate the naming process for the park located at Yukon Street and 17th Avenue.

