Proposal to Install a Welcoming Figure in Hadden Park

February 2003

The Vancouver Board of Parks and Recreation has received a proposal from the Vancouver Maritime Museum and the Squamish Nation to install on the park north of the Museum a 6 metre Welcoming Figure carved in a shed next to the museum by Squamish carver, Darren Yeltin. The figure will sit on a 2 metre base for an overall height of approximately 8 metres.

The village of Snauq once sat near the proposed site and an interpretive sign is planned to accompany the figure, telling the story of the Squamish and the history of Snauq.

If you wish to comment on this proposal, please:
