

APPENDIX 4

Analysis of Written Response to Community Preview of Public Art for Harbour Green Park

In all, nine written comments were submitted at the preview on August 7, 2003; one was received four days later in the mail; and 6 e-mails were received during the following week, (one from a respondent who also submitted written comments at the preview.) No further response has been received since August 13, 2003.

Three written responses were enthusiastic about the work citing:

- approval of this particular artwork 3
- in favour of public art generally 1
- great theme/historical reference 1
- well suited to site 1

Twelve respondents were negative remarking on:

- too big/blocks views/poorly sited 10
- work is ugly/silly/not art 9
- inappropriate/historical reference poor 4
- lack of consultation 2
- flashing light might disturb resident 1
