STAFF REPORTS & PRESENTATIONS

1. Affirmation of the Park Board as a Living Wage Employer - Report Back

The General Manager introduced the item, and the Project Manager of Strategic Operations presented the Affirmation of the Park Board as a Living Wage Employer - Report Back.

Following the presentation, staff responded to questions related to:

- Estimated cost
- Procurement
- Jurisdiction
- Resources

- Fair wage
- Council motion to repeal the living wage program
- Current living wage rate

At this point in the proceedings, Commissioner Digby raised a Point of Order, requesting a vote on the item and the addition of an amendment to the motion. The Chair agreed and ruled the motion in order.

Subsequently, it was,

MOVED by Commissioner Digby
SECONDED by Commissioner Bastyovanszky

THAT the Committee recommend to the Board:

- A. THAT the Vancouver Park Board receive this report back for information on the process and budgetary impacts of seeking Living Wage Employer re-certification.

At this point in the proceedings, Commissioner Virdi raised a Point of Order, asserting that the Chair's question to the mover was not relevant to the motion. The Chair responded that the question was indeed pertinent and ruled the challenge out of order.

The Board then proceeded to ask clarification questions of the mover.

Amendment to the Main Motion

MOVED by Commissioner Digby
SECONDED by Commissioner Bastyovanszky

THAT the following be added as B:

- B. AND FURTHER THAT the Board directs staff to include $15k in the upcoming funded 2025 budget proposal for an external legal opinion covering the main arguments in favour of the Board's authority to implement Living Wage for staff operating in the fields of parks and recreation and evaluating the legal strength of these arguments.

LOST

In favour: Commissioner Digby

Opposed: Commissioners Christensen, Haer, Howard, Jensen and Virdi

Abstained: Commissioner Bastyovanszky
