Subject: VanDusen Garden Talk on the Early Edition - Board Update

Dear Commissioners,

I wanted to let you know about an interview on early spring blooms at VanDusen Botanical Gardens that aired on CBC's Early Edition yesterday morning. CBC journalist Angela Sterritt interviewed Andrew Fleming, the Park Board's Sub-Forman Trades Gardener at VanDusen, who did a great job highlighting the current buds, blooms, and unique plants of interest in the garden. Andrew is a skilled trades gardener who gained experience working at Queen Elizabeth Park before transitioning to VanDusen two years ago. It's a short 4.5 minute segment if you have a chance to listen!

Thank you,

Amit Gandha | Director of Parks
